Required Text (s) and Readings

- Repertoire and books are chosen according to student's individual needs.
- Students are required to maintain a practice log

Class Attendance Policy

- Lesson attendance and promptness directly affect the student's grade. An unexcused absence is equivalent to failing that lesson and will be reflected in semester grading. Absence will be excused for illness, family emergency, or other USM School of Music events only.
- When possible, every effort should be made by the student to notify Dr. Mezzadri personally, a minimum of 24 hours in advance. When canceled by the instructor, a make-up time will be provided. The instructor, however, is under no obligation to wait for tardy students to provide make-up times for lessons.
- Students are allowed to trade lesson times with other studio members in order to avoid a missing lessons only.
- Students should be warmed up and ready to play at their lesson time. Excessive or continual tardiness will result in grade reduction. Dr. Mezzadri reserves the right to dismiss any student who is unprepared for his/her lesson according to studio standards. The student will be given a failing grade for that lesson. This will be reflected in the final semester grade.
- When scheduling a rehearsal outside of the student's regular lesson time, such as a chamber music coaching, dress rehearsal for a recital, or make-up lesson, students must notify Dr. Mezzadri in writing one week in advance.

Physical Contact

- Normal instruction in flute performance involves a certain amount of limited and gender-neutral physical contact between the teacher and student when dealing with subjects such as breathing, posture, finger/hand position, tension, and musical performance techniques. It is the responsibility of any student who is in any way at any time uncomfortable with this gender-neutral physical contact to immediately inform the teacher of that discomfort.

Attendance to Flute Related Performances

- Scheduled performances that require mandatory presence are posted on Southern Miss Flute Studio bulletin board.

Juries

- All students registered in this class are required to perform in the academic juries. Music Performance Majors are exempt when performing a formal recital. During the academic jury, the student must perform the assigned piece chosen by Dr. Mezzadri and scales at a speed commensurate with their level. Juries are scheduled for the last week of class.

Sophomore Proficiency Jury

- At the end of their fourth semester in MUP 214, students are required to take the Sophomore Proficiency Jury. During this jury, the student must successfully complete the following five activities:
 - 1- Perform any major or minor scale using the studio scale pattern
 - 2- Perform any part of Reichert's Seven Daily Exercises
 - 3- Perform a major work of the flute repertoire accompanied by piano
 - 4- Perform a solo etude chosen by Dr. Mezzadri two weeks prior to jury
 - 5- Give a five minutes lecture on three topics chosen by the jury committee

The jury committee will chose the topics from a list of 10 possible topics provided to the student by Dr. Mezzadri four weeks before the jury.

- Each lesson will be graded according to the following chart:
 - studio scale pattern: 20 points
 - studio chord progression pattern: 20 points
 - weekly etude: 30 points

School of Music Hearing Health Syllabus Statement

Loud music (amplified or acoustic) can lead to permanent hearing loss. Although many factors contribute to hearing loss, including time of exposure, volume/decibel levels, proximity to sources, and hereditary predisposition, we urge everyone to wear hearing protection when exposed to high sound levels for extended periods. Good hearing health requires regular examinations, proper diagnosis, and advice from a licensed audiologist. The Southern Miss Speech-Hearing-Language Clinic on campus provides free hearing exams to all students.
